Dusty Just Like Daddy!

A young pastor in Ohio also worked at a feed processing plant in order to make ends meet. Each night when he went home, his boys would look at him and say, “Boy, Dad, you sure are dusty!” He would grumble to himself, but then smile and say, “Yes, I sure am dusty.”

One Saturday morning, as he was washing his car, he looked over and saw his oldest son, 4 years old at that time, begin to pick up small stones from the driveway and rub them onto his pants.

The father asked, “What are you doing?”

“I want to be dusty like you dad,” came the reply.

As the pastor was telling the story he said, “At that time, I realized that if a son would look up to his father for being dusty, he would look up to dad for anything. What a responsibility.”

Fathers! Let’s make sure we live a life that’s worthy to be followed.

Today at KBC

We will have our morning service at 10am, and our evening service at 6pm. During the morning service, the teens are dismissed for their class during the last hymn.

Today’s Scripture Readings: Psalm 110
